

Dear Obama:

We need money for the poor people and we need to help them not just pennies and nickels we need real money, we need to help find parents we need to do all that to make them happy. And we need to give them homes with food, and with beds and lots of clothes for little kids, and make them happy.

From: Citlali M.
8 years old
Arizona, USA